As the world strikes against the climate crisis, people are looking for a solution that protects life on the planet without destroying the living standards of working people – A Green New Deal!
The Greater Milwaukee Green Party invites you to hear a panel of Greens and other activists discuss the meaning of the Green New Deal, and what we need to do to get it.
Sunday's panel includes - Mike McCallister - MC - Greater Milwaukee Green Party, George Martin - Milwaukee City/County Joint Task Force on Climate and Economic Equity - representing NAACP, and Carter Reitman from the Ecosocialist Working Group of the Democratic Socialists of America.
Free and open to the public. Donations encouraged - bring your checkbook! Refreshments will be served. Drinks available for purchase.
Organized by Greater Milwaukee Green Party
